

BRIEF NEWS FROM IBCR

We'd like to introduce you to our new informal newsletter, which will be published on an occasional basis to inform you on the happenings and developments at the IBCR. With these newsletters, we will aim to bring you up to date on our successes, projects, introduce you to some of our collaborators and summarize our more important meetings. We hope that you will appreciate this new form of communication, more relaxed, informal but with the intention of giving you a more open window into the everyday world of the IBCR.

An annual report full of surprises!

Our annual activities report was recently published, packed with information and a few surprises, just for you!

The release of the annual report is an occasion to share with you our activities undertaken, current and to come, but also to present to you the members who make this organization come alive. We've devoted an entire page to our team, with a representative sample of the various people coming from a variety of cultures (North America, Europe, Africa...), whether they be board members, paid employees, interns or volunteers, or interns. It is in from this diversity that the Bureau draws much of its richness and dynamism. Come discover them, we've even included some photographs! Reading the editorials by the President, Jean-Pierre Rosenczveig, and the Director General, Jean-François Noël, will inform you of the orientations and objectives of the Bureau for the years to come. Also, while the President invites you to join the Bureau, collectively, 'on the road to a better world', the Director General discerns the assessment of this past year which proves 'fruitful thanks to all of you'.

In addition to a presentation of our strategic plan for the next five years, you can follow the evolution of our three main programmes of action: study of the implementation of the Convention on the Rights of the in each country, child trafficking and the treatment of child victims and witnesses of crime: are our objectives, methodology and results...

This report has something for everyone, whether it be serious data with statistics, or lighter and more humane information. Available now on our website (www.ibcr.org) or in hard copy upon request.
