Conference - 7th conference of the International Society for Child Indicators “Children of the World: The Touch of Change. Theories, Policies and Practices”

Child indicators research has advanced enormously since the International Society for Child Indicators was launched in Oslo in 2005. Six ISCI international conferences [here] have been held in different parts of the world. The 7th ISCI conference will be an opportunity to reflect on progress and to envisage the future of child indicators research in an increasingly complex world.

Forum - 2019 National Child Welfare Evaluation Summit: Leveraging Data and Evaluation to Strengthen Families and Promote Well-Being

The Evaluation Summit is a forum for child welfare leaders, members of the research and evaluation community, and their partners and stakeholders to come together for timely and important dialogue and learning. The Evaluation Summit provides participants with an opportunity to explore the gap between research and practice and consider how they can better support three overarching goals: building evidence, strengthening practice, and informing policy. Participants will share research methods and findings, exchange tools and tips, build new skills, expand their professional networks, discuss familiar dilemmas and emerging challenges, and explore possible solutions from multiple perspectives.
